CeliSar Chooses CargoWise edi to Deploy ediEnterprise Software Suite

Milton Keynes, UK, March 18, 2009 — CargoWise® edi, a leading provider of integrated international supply chain logistics management systems, announced that CeliSar, agent for COSCO Container Line in Estonia, in the Baltic Region of Northern Europe, will implement CargoWise edi's award-winning ediEnterprise software solution, including its ediShippingManager module, a complete interactive solution for all of the data processing requirements of a shipping agency.

"We are pleased to establish our presence in the Estonian market and to have CeliSar utilizing ediEnterprise as its operations software suite of choice," said Steve Corbet, Vice President Business Development EMEA. "We are committed to working with CeliSar to enhance its operational and accounting procedures by incorporating efficiencies across the board that will reduce costs and improve customer visibility. We are excited to be working with CeliSar as we continue to expand our operations in the Baltic countries."

"We have been impressed with the comprehensive capabilities offered by ediEnterprise, including its ediShippingManager module," said Dmitri Petuhhov, Sales Manager for CeliSar. "We anticipate increased efficiencies and capabilities with the ediEnterprise system and look forward to working with CargoWise edi to help improve our business operations and bring added value to our customers."
