Future Forwarding Selects CargoWise ediEnterprise Solution

- Logistics Service Provider Finds Perfect Technology for Supply Chain Needs -

Chicago, IL, USA, April 5, 2011 — CargoWise®, a globally recognized technology supplier for logistics service providers, has announced a new agreement with customs broker and forwarder Future Forwarding Company. Future Forwarding selected CargoWise's ediEnterprise solution to meet its growing business requirements, improve operational efficiency and provide Web-based visibility tools to its customers.

"It is important for us to employ a system that enables us to deliver high quality information to our customers," said Colin Smith, Vice President of Future Forwarding. "In choosing CargoWise, we succeeded in finding a solution that provides us with the operational functionality we needed across the entire supply chain, whilst avoiding data re-entry functions."

Gene Gander, Vice President Business Development – Americas for CargoWise said: "We are delighted to partner with Future Forwarding to provide the technology to move its business forward - now and in the future. CargoWise's single platform ediEnterprise solution is an excellent fit that enables Future Forwarding to streamline internal processes and increase customer value."
